Locum Dietitian | Broome

4-month contract - February to May 2022

Salary Range: $98,889 - $106,306 per annum (pro-rata)

Boab Health Services is a not-for-profit multidisciplinary primary health care service delivering allied health, mental health, and care coordination services throughout the Kimberley region in Western Australia.

We have a rewarding opportunity for an experienced Dietitian to join our Allied Health team in Broome for a four-month contract commencing February 2022.

About the role

This role delivers culturally appropriate community nutrition and person-centred clinical dietetic services across the West Kimberley. Based in Broome, you will provide outreach services to towns and communities across the region.

Boab Health Services requires all staff to be fully vaccinated against COVID-19 and an up to date influenza vaccination.

About you

Your experience in dietetics and community nutrition across a range of health care settings, including working with culturally and linguistically diverse people, will be highly regarded. You will be passionate about remote Aboriginal health care, health promotion and building strong partnerships with stakeholders.

Why work with us?

Experience the magnificent Kimberley region while helping to improve health outcomes in remote WA. We offer an attractive salary and are committed to providing a supportive, collaborative, and healthy workplace for all our staff.
