

Mental Health Professional

Broome | Salary Range: $98,889 – $106,306

Boab Health Services is a not-for-profit multidisciplinary primary health care service delivering allied health, mental health, and care coordination services throughout the Kimberley region of Western Australia.

We have an exciting opportunity for an experienced Mental Health Professional (psychologist, mental health nurse, occupational therapist, Aboriginal health worker or social worker) to join our Mental Health Team.

About the role

This role will deliver mental health services for people experiencing mild to moderate mental health issues in Broome and outreach mental health services to remote Aboriginal communities in the West Kimberley. This role works in partnership with local Aboriginal Community Controlled Health Services, WA Country Health Service and other community-based organisations.

About you

You will have significant post-registration experience providing evidence-based psychological interventions for youth and adults with complex mental health issues and suicide prevention services. Your experience, compassion, and motivation to work with Aboriginal people and rural and remote mental health care will be highly regarded. You will have AHPRA registration (if applicable to your discipline) and relevant professional association membership.

Why work with us?

Boab Health Services is committed to providing a supportive, collaborative, and healthy workplace. Our employees receive relocation assistance, six weeks' annual leave (pro-rata), attractive remote-area salary packaging options (up to $30,000 per annum), excellent professional development opportunities ($4,000 budget plus five-days additional leave), and travel allowances.
