Integrated Team Care Aboriginal & Torres Strait Islander Health Project Officer (ATSIPHO) (50D)

0.6 – 1.0 FTE

Broome or Kununurra | Salary Range: $77,340 – $90,024 p.a. (1 FTE)

An Opportunity Beckons

Passionate about healthcare, warm, out-going, authentic, caring, and inspiring? Raise your hand if that's you!

If you share our values and our passion for delivering the best possible healthcare to clients, you will find a home at Boab Health Services. Boab Health Services is a not-for-profit, multidisciplinary primary health care service delivering allied health, mental health, and care coordination services throughout the Kimberley region of Western Australia. We have an opportunity for an experienced Project Officer to join our Integrated Team Care (ITC) program in the East or West Kimberley.

About the Role

This important role's main purpose is Project Management and as such requires an experienced project officer who can independently and logically identify and address barriers faced by Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander's accessing mainstream primary health services. Other duties include but are not limited to: collection and collation of data for reporting requirements; public speaking around ITC initiatives; promotion of the service to the indigenous community and other service providers. For a full understanding of the duties this position please look at the job description for this position, which is available on our website.

The ITC team works with patients, general practitioners, clinic/practice staff and a broad range of other relevant services to facilitate provision of appropriate multidisciplinary care for Aboriginal people with chronic disease. This includes providing proactive chronic disease education in a way that meets clients' individual needs and will result in improved health outcomes.

This role is for a fixed term until 30th June 2025 with the possibility of extension.

About You

The right fit for us and our company culture is super important so if you are passionate about delivering the best possible healthcare we are really looking for you. You will have an understanding of chronic disease. You will also have:

- A good understanding and knowledge of general practice, primary health care and Aboriginal health issues
- Experience working in Aboriginal communities
- A strong work ethic and strong organisational skills
- Sound time management and computer literacy skills
- Boab Health Services recognises Aboriginality as a genuine qualification for this position under 50D of the Equal Opportunity Act 1984 and to apply you must identify and be of Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander descent.
